

Heritage Arts Pavilion 2017 season

189b Wemrock Road Freehold NJ. / Oakley Farm Museum
ftheritatesociety@gmail.com / 732-577-9766

All programs are free to the public

Please note: bring a blanket or lawn chair for seating

Vic Schioppo and Bethe Burns

The Great American Songbook popular and theatrical songs will be featured.

Tuesday – August 1, 2017 Time: 7pm

Linda Russell and Company

Will perform music and songs from WWI with a program of humorous songs, marching tunes, love songs and laments.

Sunday – August 13, 2017 Time: 2pm

Note: a ribbon cutting ceremony will be celebrated at 1pm, please join us.

Ann and Ridley Enslow

The Enslow's will present a family program of 18th century music and songs.
They will be dressed in 18th century attire and will play instruments authentic to the period.

Sunday – September 10, 2017 Time: 2pm

Artisan Festival

Handcrafted arts and crafts will be featured at this annual outdoor festival.

Sunday October 1, 2017 Time: 10am - 4pm

Festival entertainment and programs to include:

Dr. Mary Walker in person Time: 11:30 - 12:30

Civil War surgeon Dr. Mary Walker will be portrayed by Sharon Dougherty and will include an engaging and entertaining reenactment of surgical procedure on the battle field during the Civil War. She will also inform those in attendance about the difficulties of mid 19th century medical practices. Dr. Mary walker is the only female to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Vic Schioppo and friends Time: 1pm-2:30pm

Songs from the War Years WWI 1914-1918 and WWII 1941-1945

The Fort Delaware Cornet Band Time: 3pm - 5pm

This award winning Civil War era brass band will perform music associated with the Civil War era 1861-1865 playing original or reproduction period instruments.