

Eighth Grade

Logan Pascoal (head) was been a member of the Group of the Year, was nominated for Counselor of the Year, and been recognized with Spirit Team and Rookie Team awards. He is rising junior at Catholic University of America where he is involved in CUA dorm security, and intramural basketball, soccer, and softball.

Sean Leahy (senior) is a first year head counselor this summer. He received his M.A. of education from Rutgers University and is now a history teacher at Freehold Township High School where he runs the Peer Leadership program.

Taylor Devlin is excited to come back for her fifth year at camp. In past summers Taylor has been awarded for Group of the year and spirit team. She is studying accounting at Monmouth University. Taylor can't wait to make this summer a memorable one for all of her campers. Taylor is Co-Director of Summer Camp's Morning Care program.

Rebecca Carroll is in her second year as an eighth grade counselor. She is studying education at Rutgers University and is really looking forward to having a fun summer with eighth grade!

Jess Lapreta will be a sophomore at Monmouth University this fall to study Speech Pathology. Jess has received the Team Spirit award and Group of the Year award. She has worked at camp for five years now and is looking forward to another great summer at Freehold Rec. Camp! Jess is Co-Director of Summer Camp's Morning Care program.

Dom Calia currently studies at Monmouth University. He graduated from Freehold High School where he played both basketball and baseball. This will be his fourth year as a camp counselor and is excited to be in the back of the park with eighth grade! Dom's goal is to make sure his campers' last year at camp will be one to remember!

Shane Laricy will be a sophomore at Brookdale this fall. He was a former football player and now plays just basketball. He is part of the Honors Society at Brookdale, is in the Business club, and loves teaching kids how to play new games!

Matt Mogilski is returning to camp this year in hopes of making this summer a very memorable one for all his campers and fellow staff members. He is a graduate of NJCU and hopes to teach his campers lots of new and exciting games this year. He is now perusing a career in education.

Sebastian Torre is a rising sophomore at Rowan University. He played numerous sports throughout high school and ended his high school athletics career with track. This will be Sebastian's fifth year at camp and he is excited to start playing games with his campers!